NEW YORK (S&P Global Ratings) Jan. 4, 2018--S&P Global Ratings has assigned its 'AAA' rating to the Village of Upper Brookville, N.Y.'s 2018 general obligation (GO) road improvement bonds. The outlook is stable.

"The rating reflects our view of the village's very strong economy and budgetary flexibility," said S&P Global Ratings credit analyst Lauren Freire, "and its strong management and budgetary performance."

The bonds are secured by the village's faith and credit pledge. Proceeds will be used for various road improvements.

Upper Brookville, with an estimated population of 1,700, is in Nassau County. It is one of the 18 villages in the Town of Oyster Bay. One of the "Gold Coast" communities on Long Island's North Shore, it is 24 miles away east of New York City.

"The stable outlook reflects our opinion of the village's very strong finances, bolstered by strong management practices and policies and strong budgetary performance, contributing to very strong budgetary flexibility and liquidity," added Ms. Freire. We believe Upper Brookville's very strong underlying economy, which benefits from its access to New York City, provides rating stability. Consequently, we do not anticipate changing the rating over the two-year outlook horizon. However, if budgetary performance were to weaken and fund balance levels fell below policy levels--or to a level we consider nominally low--we could lower the rating.
