Mayor Conway Appointed to NYCOM's Finance Policy Committee

Mayor Elliot Conway of the Village of Upper Brookville has been appointed to serve on the Finance Policy Committee of the New York State Conference of Mayors (NYCOM). Mayor James Miccio of the Village of Fishkill, NYCOM's President, made the appointment.

As a member of the Finance Policy Committee, Mayor Conway will be directly involved in providing policy recommendations to the NYCOM Executive Committee, developing positions on various pieces of legislation, and considering new legislative proposals that will benefit cities and villages. This committee will focus on a wide range of issues, including municipal budgets and taxation, real property taxes, tax exemptions, revenue options, state aid, state mandates and infrastructure funding.

In making the appointment, Mayor Miccio stated, "Mayor Conway is a strong and outspoken supporter of local government. We are pleased to have him involved with NYCOM in this important undertaking which will only strengthen our organization's advocacy efforts. I know Mayor Conway will be a tremendous asset to this process."

The Conference of Mayors represents city and village governments in New York State and has 576 city and village members. NYCOM has been in existence since 1910.
